Day One – Wednesday

We'll meet you at Madrid's Barajas Airport with our luxury bus and by noon we'll be tasting wine at one of the area's best wineries and enjoying lunch with some new favorite wines. Then we're off to Cuenca for a city tour and a quick museum stop. We'll have dinner early tonight, to give tired travelers a break before our big day on Thursday.

Day Two – Thursday

The morning begins early with an optional morning hike to see the best views of Cuenca – followed by breakfast. A short ride in our bus will take us to the Utiel-Requena area and our first wine tasting of the day at the Art on the Barrel Museum, which up until now has only been on view at the Valencian Institute of Modern Art (IVAM). After tasting, touring and lunch, we'll head to Valencia to two interesting wineries, to appreciate a wide range of Spanish wines, from still to sparkling. In the late afternoon, we'll return to Cuenca for a delicious dinner.

Day Three – Friday

We're heading to Toledo today, for a variety of activities and of course, wonderful food and wine. On the way we would visit Finca Loranque, the oldest winery in the region, an estate that celebrates the history of the area, the unique art and the delicious wine. For lunch today, we'll visit a special restaurant specializing in tapas and small plates of the region. You'll have the evening to yourself, (maybe with some new friends?), in this beautiful and easy-to-wander-through city.

Don't miss your opportunity to travel with a Chef Partylogist/ Wine Expert and a Trilingual Globetrotter!

Day Four – Saturday

A short ride to the region of Valdepeñas awaits us today. We'll experience the flavors, colors, textures, flavors and sounds of this region in person as we enjoy an unforgettable day with the proud people from three wineries and the interesting cuisine native to this fascinating slice of Spain. After we return to the hotel, we'll gather for a casual dinner.

Day Five – Sunday

The Palacio Real de La Granja de San Ildefonso awaits us today, and after a tour of the gardens and palace we'll head to leisurely lunch with wine pairing. We'll pop on the bus, and before you know it, we'll be in Segovia, where we'll dine at El Bernardino, one of the first and most famous restaurants in Segovia. Some of its famous dishes include "Iberico" cured Ham, Octopus "Galicia" style and Grilled Sea Prawns.

Here's what you have to look forward to:

- ❖ Wine and Culinary Education along with Carefully Curated Experiences to Remember Forever
- ❖ A Small Selected Group of Fellow Travelers
- ❖ Eight Days, Seven Nights to Explore Spain
- ❖ Respected Wineries and Authentic Cuisine that Celebrates REAL Spain

Day Six – Monday

The DO of Rueda awaits us today - the land of white wines, Verdejo, Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay. We've planned three exceptional wine tours for you today along with a luscious lunch. The evening will be your own in Segovia, the city is ready to welcome you!

Day Seven – Tuesday

We'll have a morning ride to Madrid, check into our hotel and head out for a Spanish cooking class – we'll make our own lunch! A brief tour of the Museo Del Prado will finish our afternoon and we'll rendezvous back at the hotel for dinner and tapas. It's our final night in Spain, and we don't want to leave without experiencing an exciting Flamenco close-up in an authentic cellar.

Day Eight – Wednesday

We'll say Adiós until our next visit to unforgettable Spain. We'll meet early in the morning to share a final breakfast with all and get you off to the airport in time for your flights across the pond.
