Sicily, the largest island in the Mediterranean is a magical place worthy to be explored and experienced in every aspect. You’ll join a small group of interested travelers for 8 days and 7 nights dedicated to Sicilian wine and cuisine with stops along the island’s most important and characteristic southern towns. From wineries like COS and Planeta to fun and interesting cooking classes from native Sicilians, to the famous almonds and lemons of the area and of course the incredible wonders of architecture and culture of this land.

SEVEN BEAUTIFUL Sicilian NIGHTS, EIGHT DAYS

to enjoy the best of Southern Sicily

The Wine: Visits to wineries where winemakers themselves will greet us and treat us to the best they can offer; Nerello Mascalese, Nero d’Avola, Cattanatto, Grillo, Frappato and more. We’ll explore the entire range of wine, from local consortiums to world fabulous vintners. You’ll return with a solid appreciation of the grapes, the wines and the winemakers of Sicily.

The Food: We’ll enjoy beautiful artisan foods from Mt Etna to Noto, Modica to Ortigia with lots of delicious stops along the way for pistachios, almonds, granita and more. (Did you know Sicilians often eat ice cream for breakfast?) We’ll taste the fabulous cheeses of Sicily like Ricotta, Pecorino, Ragusa, the incredible vegetables and fruits that acquire their flavor from the deep rich soil of the island, the seafood...OH the seafood, and feast in a variety of different restaurants. You’ll also get the opportunity to learn and make your own Sicilian specialties. All our meals will be paired with the best local wines – maybe even breakfast!

The Culture: Sicilia is ancient and its beauty and age is shown everywhere on the island. It’s much different than mainland Italy and alike in many ways as well. Byzantine, Arab, Roman and Norman rule over Sicily has led to an incredible blend of cultural influences in arts, music, literature, cuisine and architecture. We’ll let the people of this magical island tell you their stories, through food, wine and experiences.
